Charney 102/103

This room in Charney Hall functions as an event space, classroom, and moot court. It can be divided to functions as two classrooms or combined as an event space.
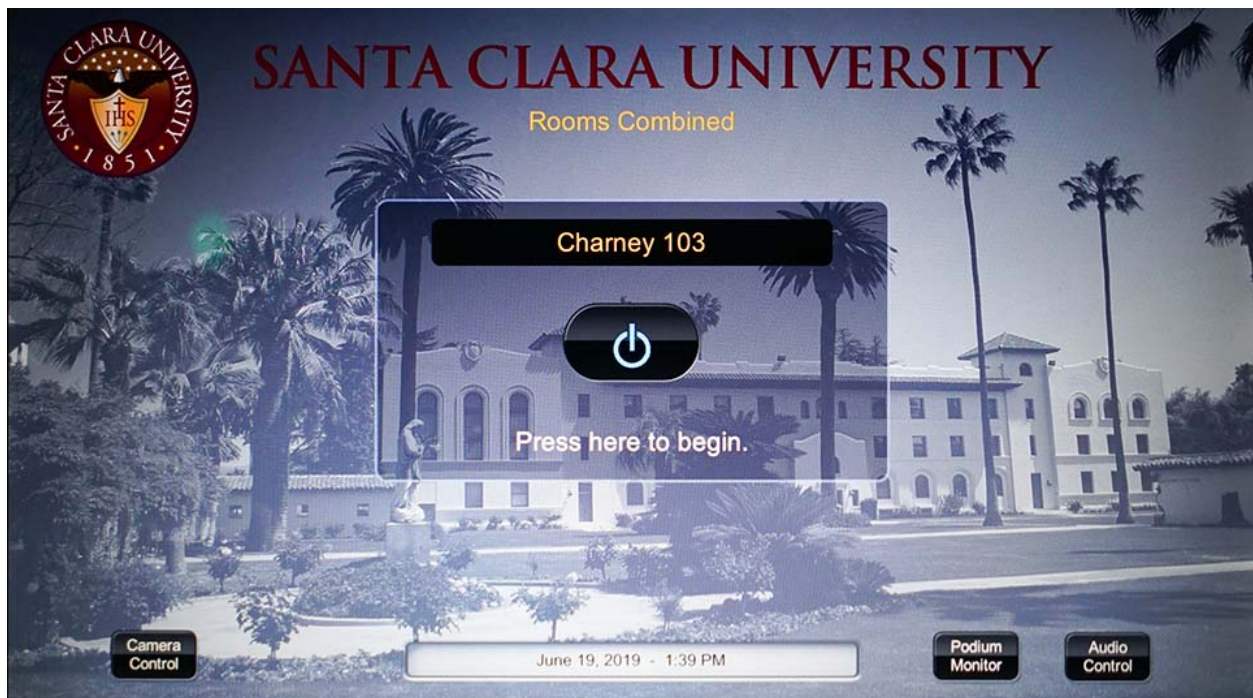

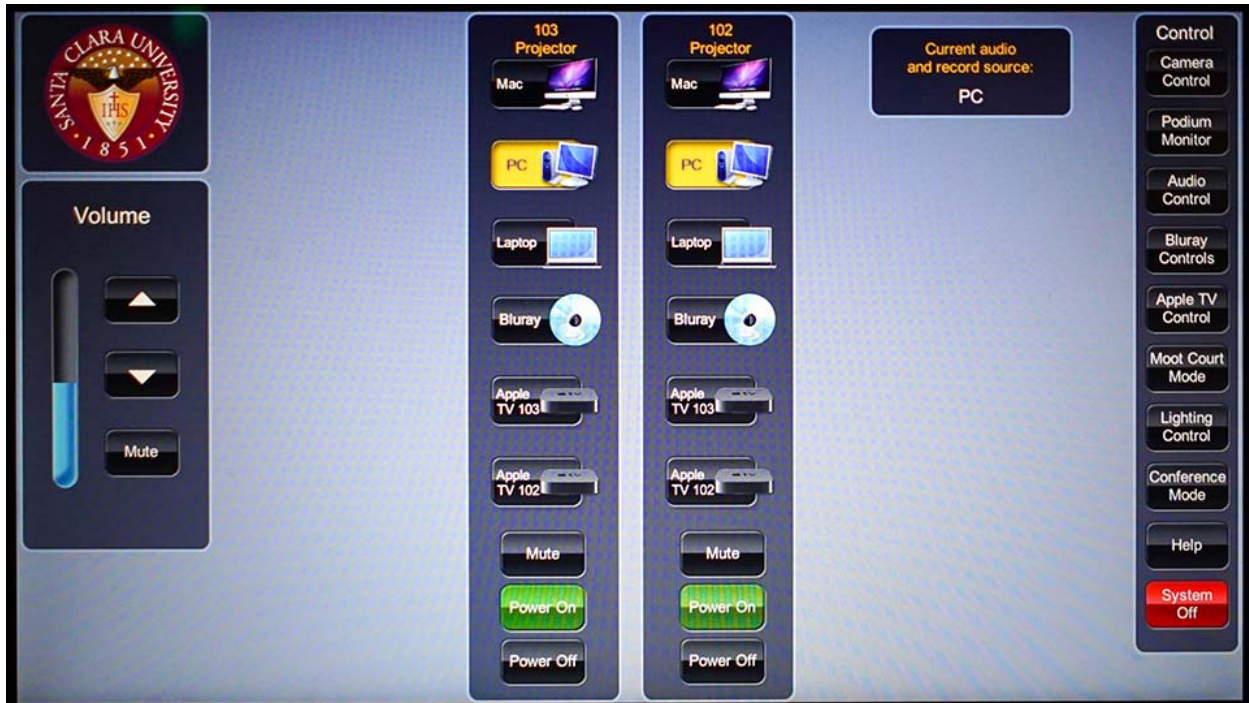

Technology in the classroom:

Desktop PC and Mac
Wacom Screen
Laptop Connection (VGA, HDMI)
Apple TV
Blu-Ray Player
Assitive Listening
8 microphones (4 lapel and 4 handhelds) which are available for checkout
Podium Microphone
Classroom Capture
Video Conferencing using Zoom or Skype
Ethernet Connection
Two Whiteboards
Projection System
Audio System
Four Ceiling Monitors
Lighting/Shade Control
Moot Court Mode - Setup for Moot Court

Maximum Size (when combined): 230 people
Maximum Size (when divided): 115 each side

Combined Mode (when partition is up)

When room is combined. The touch panel in 103 is the master control panel.

Divided Mode (when partition is down)

To power on the system, press the power button at the home screen. This will power on the system and lower the projection screen.

PC/Mac
This will select the desktop you'd like to use in the classroom

Blu-ray
You are able to play Bluray or DVD discs. The Bluray Control screen will provide you with c ontrol for common functions such as play, rewind, fast-forward, and stop.

Apple TV
All our classrooms are equipped with Apple TV. Look for the room on your Apple Device then input the password on the projector screen to connect.

Laptop
VGA and HDMI connections are provided at the instructors podium. The system will automatically select HDMI or VGA based on the cable connected.

Audio Control
Control volume levels in the room.

Camera Control
This is used to control and adjust the camera for both classroom capture and video conferencing. The camera selected is what is used for capture. You can select between two cameras. Program

Volume
Volume control for the entire classroom.

Projector Mute
This will blank out the projector. Tap to toggle on/off.

Lighting Control
This will allow to control the lighting in the room.

Audio/Camera/Bluray/Apple TV Control
This will show you the control options for each source.

Please remember to shut off the system after you are done using the room. This is done by tapping System Off. When prompted, please tap Yes.